

Our curriculum is designed to meet the students' needs and aspirations regardless of performance table measures. We recognise that it isn't the length of time spent in Key Stage 3 that is important but the quality, breadth and depth of the curriculum that are important. A summary of subjects which our curriculum offers can be found in the table below.

Literacy	BPE	English	Geography	Music	PE
Values in the Media	Religious Expression	Private Peaceful	Map skills	African Music	Games – football, rugby, rounder's, netball, hand ball
The impact of Nottingham	Eastern Religions Project	Wolf Hollow	Development	Reggae Music	Dance, trampolining, gymnastics
Broadcasting (BBC Newsday)	Religion in Contemporary Society	Wonder	Weather	Film Music	ICT
Democracy	Christianity	Introduction to Poetry	Rainforests	Band music	On-line safety – hacking
Entrepreneurship	Islam	Introduction To Shakespeare	Glaciation	Drama	Computer programming
What are British Values?	Ethics	Creative Writing	Food	The Kapok Tree	Website design
Values in the Media	Philosophy 101 – ultimate questions	The Gothic Unit	Tourism	Melodrama	Microsoft word
Human Rights	MFL	Charities Unit	History	Dracula	Email safety
Equality and Diversity	Self, Family & Friends	AQA Introduction Unit	Tudors & Stuarts	Clowning
Global Extremism	Food and Health	Animal Farm	Africa	Art
The rule of Law	Maths	Poetry From Around The World	20th Century World	Skills carousel – clay sculpture, paint, drawing, colour theory, lino printing
What are British Values?	Number work, handling data, algebra, measures	War Poetry Unit	The Holocaust		